FORMER NEW MEXICAN DIES IN WASHINGTON

Albuquerque, N. M., Dec. 22.—Olivier E. Cromwell, reported to have been several times a millionaire, a director of the Bank of Commerce and owner of some of the most valuable real estate in Albuquerque, died yesterday morning at his residence in Washington, D. C., according to messages received here yesterday afternoon by his many friends and business associates.

While the cause of his death is not yet known here, it is thought to have been paralysis, from which Mr. Cromwell had been a constant sufferer for the past four years, and which had made him practically an invalid. His death was unexpected here because during the past few weeks business associates had received personal letters indicating that he was giving personal attention to his correspondence, which during his illness had been looked after by his secretary.

Mr. Cromwell left a wife, a daughter and two sons. Mrs. Cromwell was formerly Miss Roberts of Chicago, a daughter of Judge Roberts of that city. Mr. and Mrs. Cromwell had been visiting at Judge Roberts' home until a short time ago, when they went to Washington.

Mr. Cromwell was over sixty years of age when he died. He suffered a stroke of paralysis four years ago, following his visit to Albuquerque, and since that time his health had steadily failed. He placed his interests here in the hands of his agents, but he always took a deep personal interest in Albuquerque and New Mexico. Mr. Cromwell also has large interests in Santa Fe, Las Vegas and other New Mexico towns. He is reported to have been an extensive real estate owner in the heart of New York City, where he owned a home.

Mr. Cromwell first came to Albuquerque from New York City in 1882 and his first business enterprise of consequence was the installing of the street car system and the purchase of the old fair grounds. He operated the car line for some time and later sold it to the present owners, who extended it and improved it. In 1894 Mr. Cromwell built the Cromwell block and from that time until a few years ago he dealt extensively in real estate here and at other points in New Mexico.

For That Dull Feeling After Eating I have used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for some time, and can testify that they have done me more good than any tablets I have ever used. My trouble was a heavy dull feeling after eating.—David Freeman, Kempt, Nova Scotia. These tablets strengthen the stomach and improve the digestion. They also regulate the liver and bowels. They are far superior to pills but cost no more. Get a free sample at all dealers and see what a splendid medicine it is.

PRESIDENT TAFT TALKS TO CENSUS OFFICIALS

Washington, Dec. 22.—President Taft's ringing address to the census supervisors, from the eastern states, in conference here today, was intended not only for them, but, also, for all the other supervisors, for the candidates for enumerators' places, the politicians and the world in general. He said:

"I am very glad to see you. You number about a third of the force upon which we have to rely to take the census. I expressed my opinion about the character of your duties when I wrote a letter to Mr. Durand. I did not write that letter just for the fun of having it published. I wrote it to be a genuine instruction to you, and I hope you will all observe it. I know if you pursue it, it will be an easy course for you. If you don't observe it, then I will observe you. I know, of course, there will be pressure.

"Many of you—most of you—have been recommended by congressmen, and it may be that some of these congressmen will come to you and expect, because they did recommend you, that you owe them something in the way of selecting the men as enumerators who will help them in their congressional election. You have got to use sense and discretion. You have got to select men that you think will do the work, and if you catch them doing political work I wish you to remove them, just as I will remove you if I catch you doing political work. It is business.

"I am not quarreling with the congressmen. Each man is looking for all the aid he can get to get back into the efforts in that direction. But you are the gentlemen that I want to make responsible, through Mr. Durand, for taking this census, and you are the gentlemen I rely upon, and if I can't rely upon you, then I am going to direct Mr. Durand to let me know about it, and I will see if I cannot help him out with somebody else.

"I take great pride in this census. I believe we can make it the best census that has been taken, if we take it as a census, and do not use it and regard it as incidental to something else.

"Now, you are not well paid. This is not a business that is going to enrich any one of you; but it is a business that is worth doing well, and I hope it will turn out so that when the census is taken we shall all have pride in the fact that we were a part in taking it, however humble.

"I am glad to meet you, gentlemen. I would be glad to say this same thing to your fellow fellows, but having this opportunity of delivering a little lecture, I could not restrain myself from doing so. I mean every word I have said."

Passing of The Texas Rangers

Word comes from Austin that Texas is to disband its famous organization of "Rangers." The legislature will make no further provision for these mounted officers of the peace and they will be retired to private life to live in history as members of as gallant a band of heroes as ever faced death for the good of humanity. The Rangers have done their work. Texas is now as peaceful as any state in the Union, in spite of its vast frontier reaching from El Paso to Brownsville, on which thousands of murderers and cut-throats from two nations once congregated.

The passing of the rangers marks the final dissolution of an organization that was unique and spectacular. Following the civil war, Texas became infested with "bad" men who fled from justice in the older states. Texas was the ideal refuge for those who feared the law. It was sparsely settled, offered splendid facilities for hiding, and along the Rio Grande these outlaws formed bands which preyed upon helpless settlers and defied the authorities. When pressed by soldiers, the outlaws crossed into Mexico, only to return a little later to the richer fields of plunder in the Lone Star state. The situation called for drastic action. Counties were not organized in the western part of the state, and even had there been county

A WEAK WOMAN AND HER STORY

In Floral, Ark., Lives a Lady Who Feels That Her Strength Was Restored by Cardui.

Floral, Ark.—"I must speak a good word for Cardui," writes Mrs. Viola Baker, of this place.

"About a month ago I was in very bad health. I was so weak and nervous that I was not able to do my housework. My husband bought me one bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic. I took it according to directions and now I am in good health.

"I think Cardui is a fine tonic for weak women."

And you are not the only lady who thinks so, Mrs. Baker.

Thousands, like you, have written to tell of the wonderful benefit Cardui has been to them.

Cardui contains no minerals, or other powerful drugs. It contains no glycerol or other mawkish-tasting ingredients.

It is just a pure, natural extract, of natural vegetable herbs, that have been found to regulate the womanly functions and strengthen the female system.

All druggists sell Cardui.

See yours about it.

Health Is More Expensive Than Any Cure

This country is now filled with people who migrate across the continent in all directions seeking that which gold cannot buy. Nine-tenths of them are suffering from throat and lung trouble or chronic catarrh resulting from neglected colds, and spending fortunes vainly trying to regain lost health. Could every sufferer but undo the past and cure that first neglected cold, all this sorrow, pain, anxiety and expense could have been avoided. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its cures of colds, and can always be depended upon. Use it and the more serious diseases may be avoided. For sale by all dealers.

A father seldom whips his small son for fighting if he shows that he has been cultivating the habit of victory.

Purity, perfect results and economy all are combined in K. C. Baking Powder. Guaranteed the best at any price. You are wasting your money to pay more for any baking powder 25 cents for a 25 ounce can.

Rich Men's Gifts Are Poor beside this: "I want to go on record as saying that I regard Electric Bitters as one of the greatest gifts that God has made to woman," writes Mrs. O. Rhinevaux, of Vestal Center, N. Y. "I can never forget what it has done for me." This glorious medicine gives a woman buoyant spirits, vigor of body and brilliant health. It quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells; soon builds up the weak, ailing and sickly. Try them. 50c at all druggists.
